Towards a Liberal Religious Theology

John Shelby Spong is a prominent liberal Christian theologian and writer. Bishop Spong's intelligence and his thoughtfulness readily come through in his writing. In his later years, he has been refining his theology. Lorne Ruby lent me a book Spong penned a decade ago titled Eternal Life: A New Vision. Beyond Religion, Beyond Theism, Beyond Heaven and Hell. In reading the book, I found myself agreeing with him on a number of spiritual points. I really appreciated his theological explanations of ideas that are very difficult to articulate. I will share some of his beliefs which caught my attention in a moment.

I also found that a lot of the traditional Christian dogmas that he had to extricate himself from in order to come to a modern spiritual belief system that worked for him, are conveniently absent for us as liberal Jews. For example, he wrote "I find myself increasingly unable to tolerate an ecclesiastical hierarchy that pretends to speak for that which is holy in order to diminish that which is human." In Reform Judaism, we are blessed to have some very sage rabbis who provide guidance for the movement as leaders of the Union for Reform Judaism, teachers in the seminary (Hebrew Union College), scholars, and president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. Still we are not very hierarchically organized, and these leaders write opinions or provide guidance; they do not impose doctrine. He also spoke about his personal movement away from the New Testament belief that only the sinless can save the sinful and away from a belief in heaven and hell. These are not doctrinal concerns for us.

Let me share with you some of the modern religious concepts that he put so well. A lot of these views are not uniquely his, but he shares them as part of his own integrated spirituality perspective. These resonate with me. Perhaps they will with you as well.

"Human life is interdependent....And the more I gave, the more I seemed to have to give."

"We are part of God and God is part of us. The task of faith has become living, loving and being."

"The task of religion is not to make us religious but to make us human/whole/free... The goal of all religion is not to prepare us to enter the next life but to live and love now."

"I have always been a religious seeker. Perhaps all humans are. Not all answers may be there to be found. It is the nature of human life to seek that which is ultimate."

"Religion is ever changing. We are awakening to a sense of oneness with all that is. We need to rethink the word 'God'...not God as a great human being who can escape our limits. We need to grow up and stop the human attempt to see God as the divine parent figure. We are part of who God is. The human ability to claim our God consciousness is the essence of humanity. We can see God in non-personal rather than impersonal terms."

Many of Spong's thoughts mirror ideas available in modern Jewish theology today, for example in the neo-Chassidism of Rabbi Art Green and others. Of course, his belief that religion should focus on making us better humans in this life (rather than concentrate on the next life) is central to all of Jewish thinking. I do very much appreciate his movement from an anthropomorphic God to an understanding that God is totally different than we are. This belief is found in Maimonides and in the Chassidic masters. Liberal religious perspectives, like those Spong articulates, provide meaningful spiritual ideas for us today. I have only given you a bit of Spong's beliefs here, but I would invite you to pick up his book or Art Green's Ehyeh as you continue on your own spiritual journey.

Member News:

Lasting Legacy Online

Temple Beth Sholom members Elaine and Howard Schwartz want to share their exciting news and ask for your help to promote it! They have a new endeavor called Lasting Legacy Online. Elaine, a former nursing home administrator and manager of many state aging programs, knew the need for older persons to pass on their stories to family and friends. Dr. Howard Schwartz, former Judicial Administrator for Kansas, had the connections and the business sense to put the idea into action.

After researching the right questions, the online free program was launched. In 2013, Kansas Chief Justice Kay McFarland, Elaine's friend and Howard's former boss, became involved with helping to make this dream come true. LastingLegacyOnline LLC was officially established in 2016 and was registered/trademarked the same year. Howard, Elaine, and their 4 children/family members are the voices on the introductory video on the site. To learn more about how to tell your story, watch the other introductory video posted on Facebook at <https://youtu.be/fE7O4xtZQPw>.

To read Elaine's story go to <https://www.lastinglegacyonline.com/members/eschwartz/profile/> and to read Howard's go to <https://www.lastinglegacyonline.com/members/ojaschwartzgmail-com/profile/>

Tell your story! If you have any questions, email Howard or Elaine. They hope the site is successful and that advertisers will use it as they do Facebook. It is not only for older people but people of all ages!

Monthly Shabbat Morning Opportunities

Talmud Study – 9:00 am Saturday, February 2 and 16

Kabbalah Study - 9:00 - 10:30 am, Saturday, February 9 and 23

The Essential Kabbalah by Professor Daniel Matt

Kabbalah is the mystical stream of Judaism. It attempts to reach beyond Jewish ritual law and practice in its quest for a greater, more personal, understanding of the spiritual journey...of God Himself...and ultimately of communion.....of a direct and personal relationship with God. Join us as we delve into the insights of the Jewish mystical tradition using this text by Kabbalah scholar extraordinaire, Daniel Matt.

TaNaKh Study – 10:30 am – 12:00 pm, Saturday, February 9 and 23

In this group, we are reading the Bible all the way through. We are currently reading the book of Psalms. Each time we meet we read a few verses or a chapter out loud and then stop to discuss it before going on. We enjoy a free-ranging discussion of what was read and its implications.

Historical Corner by Jack Wisman

I want to thank those of you who read my Temple Beth Sholom 90th Anniversary history updates last year. I received a number of positive comments and I appreciate all of them!

I've written about the Topeka Cemetery before and talked about the establishment of the Jewish Section in the early 1870's. However, there is another Jewish cemetery in the area. There is a small exclusively Jewish cemetery in Eudora, Kansas – just east of Lawrence. This cemetery dates back to the early 1800's! It's maintained by the Lawrence Jewish community and is still being used, and, I understand, being mowed on a regular basis.

If anyone would like a tour of the Jewish section at the Topeka Cemetery, or information on the Eudora cemetery, let me know. Jewish cemeteries are not just places where people are buried, they're the history of a community.

Until next time, Jack.

Temple is looking to rent some of its space. We were very happy having Central Congregational Church and St Davids' Episcopal Church as tenants and are now looking to rent again. Doing so is a big help to our bottom line, and we have space we could readily share.

If you know a church with similar values needing space, a business looking for offices, a baker/caterer/cook needing a kitchen, an organization wanting conference rooms, please let us know or have them call the Temple office or Alan Wisman.

A BIG THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO HELPED WITH THE BREAKTHROUGH CLUBHOUSE CHRISTMAS DAY DINNER

On Christmas morning, a small band of Temple volunteers converged on the Breakthrough Clubhouse at 12th and Van Buren to begin decorating tables and cooking a noontime dinner for the clubhouse clientele. Other volunteers arrived later to serve food and to clean up. The annual dinner, once again, proved to be a tasty and greatly appreciated occasion. Thank you again to the amazing group of nearly 30 people who helped with the dinner!

We received a letter from the Breakthrough house: "Dear Temple Members and Volunteers, Everyone at Breakthrough House wishes to thank Temple Beth Shalom and its volunteers for providing a wonderfully delicious Christmas dinner for our Clubhouse members' and consumers' holiday celebration this year. We are very appreciative of the time and effort that goes into preparing and presenting this amazing dinner at the Breakthrough House Clubhouse, now for the 29th year! Your time and resources are precious, and we are thankful you've chosen to share them with us, so that our members have a great meal on their Christmas holiday."

Temple Beth Sholom Recognition Award: Miriam's Award

Submit your Temple unsung hero today!

In the last few years, the Temple has recognized a few outstanding volunteers at each annual meeting and presented them with an award. This award will be given for outstanding support for the Temple Beth Sholom community through acts of deed and love. These qualities are much like those demonstrated by the strong and courageous Miriam, often the unsung hero.

Each year the Miriam's Award recipients will be selected from submissions from the congregation. This award is for a person (woman or man) who makes a continuous and significant contribution (perhaps behind-the-scenes) without whose efforts many activities and events in the Temple would not enjoy as much success. Please fill out the form below and send it in (or e-mail it) to the Temple office by March 23.

Suggested Award Recipient: _____

What has congregant done over that last few years that has contributed to the success of our temple?

As a result, how has this congregation benefitted from this person's contributions?

Why do you feel this congregant is an "unsung hero?"

Knish Cooking March 17 at 9:00 am to 1:00 pm
Silent Auction Prizes

The Blintze Brunch has historically been one of our most successful fundraisers. We would like to see it grow of course! We are going to try and do this by getting higher value items for the Silent Auction (Over $50 or higher). We do 65% of our business with food item sales and 35% of the day's sales on Nonfood items- i.e., the silent auction and the raffle. Our goal is to make the figures a more 50/50 proposition so that we can help increase our gains. The Blintze Brunch Committee has been acquiring these items since last fall and made solid progress so far. If you know any business or personally would like to assist in getting donations or have a donation for the Silent Auction, please let us know.

We will be advertising these items with pictures on our emails, Facebooks, and various advertising options. We are very excited about this and will keep everyone "in the loop" as we go forward. We also may be changing the bidding process for the Silent Auction. We have been looking at various online options to take the bidding electronically so that once you leave you can continue to bid on items.

If you have any question or have something to donate, give Jack Wisman or Todd Gordon a call.

The Beautiful Possible, a 2017 National Book Award finalist by Amy Gottlieb, is a novel with conflicting ideas: the search for God and the struggle to find one's identity.

Three protagonists: Walter, a refugee from WW II, struggles to come to terms with the loss of his family; Rosalie, young, searches for meaning in her newfound adulthood; Sol, a soon-to-be rabbi who believes his happiness will be found in the study of the Bible.
