

TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM BULLETIN

Number 3, 2020-2021

November 2020, Cheshvan - Kislev 5781

Rabbi Moti Rieber

Rabbi's Column

Dear Friends –

By the time you read this, the election may already be over. Election Day, that is, this year, it would not be a surprise if the vote counting takes longer than a day or even a week. Like everything else about this year, the election is fraught with uncertainty and trepidation. So, I would like share with you a few Jewish values that can guide our actions in the voting booth, in any subsequent period of uncertainty, and in our civic life for the rest of the year as well.

B'tzelem Elohim – Human beings are created in the image of God. This is the recognition of the spark of humanity, of divinity, in those we tend to “other” – whether because of race, sexual orientation, or immigration status. In addition, in a time of such strong partisanship, it is vital that we recognize the human worth of those whose opinions we disagree with -- even strenuously. Recognizing the created-in-God's-image of those we see as our political adversaries keeps open the possibility of reconciliation and a renewal of shared purpose. In fact, it may be the only thing that does.

Kehilla – Community. In Jewish thought and practice, much emphasis is placed on the importance of the collective. Usually we think of this in terms of the synagogue, but it is important to think of our civic community this way as well. At a time when so much emphasis is placed on the rights of the individual, our responsibilities to the community are often forgotten or denied. When something as simple as wearing a mask can have real health implications, renewing our commitment to community is vital.

Democracy – This is a modern value that has been incorporated into Jewish life. The free exchange of ideas; collective decision making by a well-informed citizenry; the right as a citizen to vote for our leadership – this is the basis of the legitimacy of our government, and it's also the means by which social progress on many important issues has been made. This is the reason that so many of us see Election Day, although it is secular, as among the most sacred of days.

Tzedek – Justice. Resisting oppression is a core commitment of Judaism, especially Reform Judaism. Paying the worker a fair wage; the right to education, healthcare, housing, food, water; making sure people receive equitable opportunity to flourish as human beings, wherever they come from, whoever their parents are; are the basis of a just and equitable society, exactly what we should be striving for.

There are more: emet (truth, integrity), kavod ha'briut (creation care), rahmanut (compassion), shalom (peace). These values remind us that voting, and civic participation in general, are not to be left to someone else, but are core commitments, incumbent upon each of us, not just as citizens, but as members of the Jewish community. There is a brakha, a blessing, that was written in our generation to be said when casting a vote or otherwise participating in civic affairs: Blessed are You, Holy One our God, Lifeforce of the Universe, who directs us to address the needs of the community.

May this election help lead us to an era of human dignity, justice, and peace. Amen.

Temple Beth Sholom Joins the Global Day of Jewish Learning, Sunday, November 8

Every year, hundreds of communities, representing tens of thousands of Jews around the world, participate in the Global Day of Jewish Learning. Over 24 hours, world Jewry engages in united study of Torah, centered around an annual theme. This year's theme is human dignity.

Temple Beth Sholom will once again take part in the year's event, on Sunday, November 8 at 11:00 am via Zoom. Members will also be able to take part in distance learning provided by the organizers.

Look for more details in the weekly email.

VIRTUAL INTERFAITH THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The theme this year is Giving Thanks Amid Challenges. Recipient of goodwill offering will be Topeka Center for Peace and Justice. We hope you will join us for this event. It is always inspiring, and it is a good opportunity to celebrate our blessings and our common hopes and aspirations for the world. ### TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM RELIGIOUS SCHOOL 10:30 am VIA ZOOM

Sunday, November 8, Global Day of Jewish Learning Group study sessions.

Sunday, November 1, 15 and 22 Group meets, Individual Classes meet.

Sunday, December 6, Group meets, Individual Classes meet.

Sunday, December 13, Chanukah Group Celebration followed by breakout sessions.

Temple Beth Sholom Virtual Religious School

The Religious School has been meeting weekly since Sunday, September 13. We have five classes of varying age groups who participate in a Zoom call together to start the morning with some silliness and funny faces. Occasionally, a pet will sneak in and delight the entire group. Because we are all in this together, we decided to do our art projects and our song singing as a big group and the mayhem that comes from this makes us laugh and reminds us how much we like and miss each other. Note: we are far better than you would think at not talking over one another.

When we don't have a special art project with Miss Leora, or Rabbi Moti talking to us about a holiday, or Miss Stephanie leading us in song, we break out into our own classrooms and enjoy a lesson with our teachers. In addition to our lessons, the 1st/2nd grade class enjoyed drawing pictures of timely themes like apple & honeycomb trees and sukkahs. Our Hebrew students met separately with their teachers to make sure that we do not let our Torah-reading grow rusty.

While we long for the day we can be together to play and enjoy in-person learning, for now we are being smart, we are trusting the science and we are taking care to keep us all well.

Temple Beth Sholom Virtual Silent Auction Postponed to Spring

Having the auction in December is not feasible, as we have not collected very many items and more time is needed to put together the auction, since it will be totally virtual. We hope we will have the Blintze Brunch in April (at least a drive thru) and will plan to have the Silent Auction on that date.

In the meantime, we still need more helpers and more items to auction off! Now is a great time to ask businesses for year-end donations before they do their inventories! I will schedule a Zoom meeting soon to begin the six-month preparation. Thank you to the Temple members who have volunteered at this time.

Members can also start collecting nice items that they want to donate for the auction in addition to making things that would sell. I have been watching Facebook Marketplace for $5 items that Howard and I can buy and donate for the auction. We bring them home and clean them if necessary and take photos. Here are a few from this past week.

We hope to make this auction easier with better profits so that future Temple Beth Sholom generations can get involved and help Temple keep a rabbi. If you have not signed up, please do.

Elaine and Howard Schwartz

The Facility Usage During the Pandemic ad hoc committee was formed to suggest guidelines for a safe return to Temple usage.

The Facility Usage Committee unanimously agreed that Friday night Shabbat services should continue via Zoom.

The following guidelines were presented to and approved by the Temple Board of Directors.

Temple Beth Sholom Guidelines for small group meetings:

1. The committee chair or group leader of a meeting will sign up with the Temple office to reserve a date and time for the meeting.
2. Committees or groups will be encouraged to meet outdoors (e.g. in the Sukkah). If meeting indoors is necessary, committees are encouraged to open a door or window for ventilation.
3. Every attendee will sign in including a phone number in case contact tracing is necessary.
4. All attendees will be required to maintain a 6' social distance and wear a mask at all times. The mask must be worn properly, covering the nose and mouth, and may not be removed, including when speaking.
5. The committee chair or group leader is responsible to wipe down all surfaces and doorknobs (or may designate someone) after a meeting.
6. Food and drink should not be served as masks should remain on at all times.
7. Taking of temperatures is not required. In person, Zoom or a hybrid meeting will be left up to the Committee chair or group leader. Ideally, a Zoom option will be available for individuals preferring to attend online.

Guidelines to scheduling meetings

1. One group at a time will meet at Temple.
2. One AM meeting and one PM meeting per day
3. Exception to #2 would be if there is one small group meeting followed by another with four to five attendees in each group and the same facilitator, e.g. Frayna's Hebrew classes.

Cleaning supplies and hand sanitizer will be placed in the board room, library, bathrooms, and social hall.

Temple Beth Sholom will follow the State of Kansas Ad Astra plan and monitor the county COVID numbers and will modify the guidelines accordingly.

Every Tuesday, you receive the announcement below in our weekly email.

“Hy-Vee Gift Cards & Dillons Rewards Program

Don't forget we have Hy-Vee gift cards in the Temple office, and we get 5% from Hy-Vee. You can purchase gift cards at Hy-Vee with your Temple Hy-Vee gift card. And as a reminder, if you are signed up for the Dillons Community Reward program through your Dillon's card, Temple Beth Sholom receives a percentage of your grocery purchases.”

For many years Temple Beth Sholom has relied on Dillons Community Rewards program and the purchase of Hy-Vee gift cards from Temple Beth Sholom to supplement our annual income.

An interesting bit of trivia, and we all know how much Jack Wisman likes trivia, he and Helen Berlin began a script program with Albertsons on February 25, 1997! I believe we began the programs with Dillons and Hy-Vee in December of 2013.

For the first several years, Temple Beth Sholom earned approximately $2,000 per year just from Dillons with 45 households registered. In 2020, we have 46 households registered; we are on track to receive $1100 from the program.

Dillons no longer gives rewards for gas purchases or gift cards, which accounts for some of the drop in amount we are receiving. But I would like to encourage those who are not enrolled to follow the instructions below to link up your Dillons Plus card or obtain a Dillons Plus card if you shop at Dillons. This will also work at other Kroger Stores. When we travel to California (like in the good old days), our Dillons card (Kroger) can be used at Ralphs.

We also have gift cards to Hy-Vee available in the Temple office. Thank you to Margot Brown who purchases the gift cards in which Temple Beth Sholom receives 3% of the gift card face value.

Please consider taking the extra effort to support Temple Beth Sholom, there is no extra cost to you, but Temple Beth Sholom will reap the benefits.

Jane Greene

Just a reminder, at the 2013 Annual meeting, the congregation approved establishing a Maimonides Rabbinic Fund to assure continued rabbinic leadership at Temple Beth Sholom.

This assessment amounts to $5 per month per family or $60 a year and started with our fiscal year beginning June 1, 2013.

If possible, please send a separate check for $60 (made out to Temple Beth Sholom or Maimonides Fund), with your dues check to make your contribution to the Maimonides Rabbinic Fund.

Also, contributions to this fund do not need to be limited to this yearly payment. Donations can also be made for a yahrzeit, to commemorate a birth or a wedding, a thank you, etc.

Reform Jewish Calendar of Major Jewish Holidays 2020-2021 (5781)

Chanukah	December 10-18, 2020 (sunset Thursday-sunset Friday)
Purim	February 25-26, 2021 (sunset Thursday-sunset Friday)
Passover	March 27- April 4, 2021 (sunset Saturday-sunset Sunday)
Shavuot	May 16-18, 2021 (sunset Sunday-sunset Tuesday)

Highlights from Temple Beth Sholom Board meeting, October 7, 2020

- Even though they were online, Temple Beth Sholom members enjoyed wonderful and meaningful High Holy Day services. Our thanks go to Rabbi Rieber, Julie Petruccelli-Treen and the entire Religious Services Committee for working so hard with organizing the High Holy Day services.
- The online Temple Silent Auction fundraiser is being rescheduled for the spring. With so many things to do for a successful auction, more time is needed to prepare properly. We will all continue to work hard on this under the leadership of Elaine Schwartz.
- Jane and Russ Greene are heading a special committee to create guidelines for Phase 1 of returning to Temple Beth Sholom building usage for small group meetings. Details in this bulletin.

Friday Shabbat Services via Zoom

We are reading Mi Shebeirach names again during our Shabbat Services via Zoom. If you would like your name or someone else's name read, please email the Temple office by Wednesday prior to that Friday's Service to have your name(s) added. Please note that they will be read during the Shabbat service via Zoom and on Facebook Live in the private group.

As we move into transition, we need more lay leaders. If you are interested in leading services or learning what goes into leading a service, please contact Julie Petruccelli-Treen at petruccellitreen.jl@gmail.com or the Temple Office. With enough interest, we will put together a class. This is a unique and special way to help your congregation.
